

St. Louis Hills Art <sup>in</sup> the Park

Raffle Information

Details of the raffle process before and on the day of the event.

Just a quick review on how our raffle works:

- Artists submit an item from their collection to raffle off. Because each artist works in a variety of mediums, we do not require minimum value. It is only suggested that the item be a fair representation of your work.
- A photo and description of raffled items are printed in the booklet along with your company name and location around the Lily Pond.
- Each visitor receives a booklet upon entering the park and uses that booklet as a guide for the day (and the raffle!!)
- Art in the Park will provide all participating artists with a collection box and raffle sign. Your raffle item and ticket box will remain in your tent until the winners are pulled at the end of the day.
- Customers purchase raffle tickets from the Raffle Booths located at both ends of the Lily Pond. You do not need to worry about selling tickets. (Psst! You will be too busy with customers visiting your booth!)
- Customers travel throughout the show, visiting each booth, placing raffle tickets in the box for the item they wish to win.
- At the end of the day, Art in the Park volunteers will have you pull the winning ticket, collect the raffle item and the raffle box.
- We will take care of contacting the winners.

Proceeds from the raffle allow us to add art “in” the park (such as our latest installment of the kinetic sculptures at the entrance of the fair) for the benefit of all who visit.
